

Instruction for KIPON EF-GFX AF

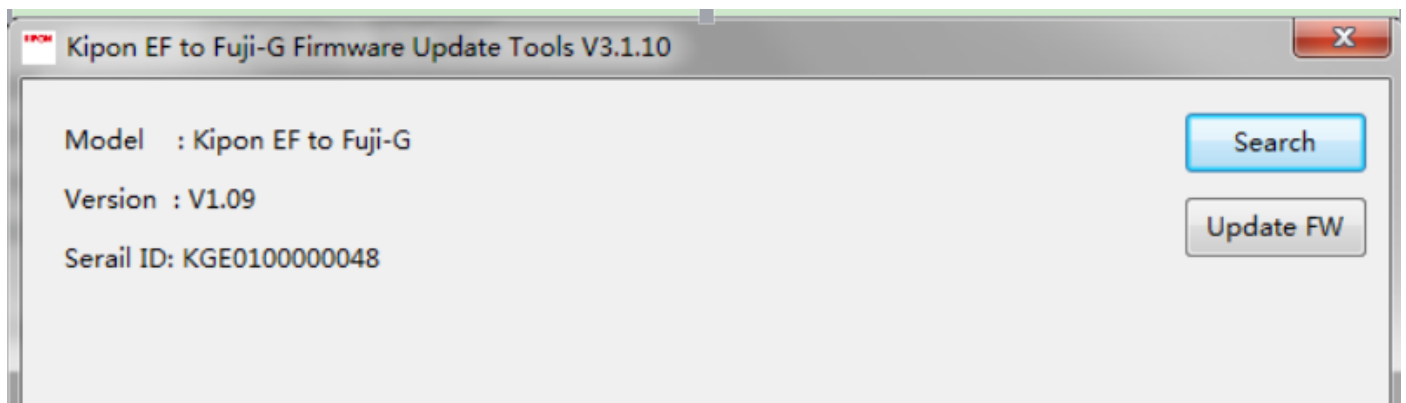

Thank you for purchasing KIPON Adapter

This adapter is compatible Canon and third-party EF/EF-S mount lenses for Fuji G mount medium format camera bodies, it can be autofocus, electronic aperture, exif information output with autofocus lenses, there is a USB interface for customers to upgrade on windows system in future when new update firmware comes out.

Update instruction

1. Download the latest update firmware from KIPON official website
2. Connect KIPON EF-GFX AF adapter with PC by micro-USB cable.
3. Operate the update firmware and click "search" button, it will show the model, current version and serial ID of the adapter

4. click "Update FW" to finish the update and it will show the latest version on left.

Notes:

1. Not all Canon and third-party EF/EF-S lenses are compatible with this adapter, some age-old lenses maybe can not be autofocus or even do not work.
2. Please contact us if there is abnormal condition in use, please do not disassemble or repair personally, we are not responsible for Secondary maintenance
3. free warranty period is 1 year without man-made damage

KIPON is a registered trademark for Shanghai Transvision Photographic Equipment Co., Ltd and protected by law.